COL. D. W. CLARK TUBERCULOSIS

The Popular Editor of the Barbourville Advocate, Announces for the Office of Commissioner of Agriculture on Republican Ticket.

Our old friend and brother Editor, D. Will Clark, of the Mountain Advocate, last week came out in a card announcing himself a candidate for the Republican nomination of the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, subject to the action of the Republican convention to meet at Louisville July 11th.

It gives us much pleasure to recommend Bro. Clark to the people of the State.—Corbin Times.

We clip the following comment from the Mt. Olive Tribune-Democrat, published in the county where we were reared, the editor having known us from childhood. It says: "D. W. Clark, of Barbourville, has announced as a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Commissioner of Agriculture. Mr. Clark has many friends in this section of the State, where he is well and favorably known. He would make a most efficient Commissioner as he has always been more or less identified with the interests of the farmers. He was raised on the farm and knows the needs of the farmer."

After New Honors

Past Sachem Col. D. W. Clark has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture. It is claimed that Bro. Clark is fitted by knowledge, training and sympathy with Kentucky agricultural conditions for the office for which he seeks. He has good backing both politically and fraternally, as he has for many great years been prominent in both the political and the fraternal affairs of the State. He is a prominent Red Man and a member of the council, degree of Pocahontas, of the Great Council of Kentucky.—American Red Man.

SUN TO BE HIDDEN

First Eclipse Will Occur April 23 and is to be Visible Here

On two days of this year the sun will be hidden from the view of people in certain sections of the United States. One of the eclipses will occur on April 28, and will be visible to this country with the exception of the northeastern portions, the eclipse extending north as far as a line drawn through the cities of Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Butte, Montana and Portland, Oregon. The eclipse also will be visible to Mexico, Central America, the western portion of the West Indies, the eastern half of Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Ocean, the path of totality extending from Auckland, Australia across the Pacific Ocean almost to Central America.

An annular eclipse of the sun will occur on October 22, which will be invisible to the United States, but visible to Asia, Philippine Islands, Australia, the northern part of New Zealand and the Pacific Ocean.

Good Roads Convention

A Good Roads Convention was held Wednesday at Pineville and was attended by County Judge J. T. Stamper, Hon. W. F. Parker, D. W. Clark, W. M. Tye, Capt. B. B. Golden, George Goodin and Charles Davis from this city.

Time and space forbid an account of the meeting this week but will mention it in next issue.

Causes Ten Per Cent of Church Deaths

State Association Reports High Death Rate From Consumption

Statistics showing how serious a problem Tuberculosis is to the ordinary church congregation were published today by the Kentucky Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in a bulletin on Tuberculosis Day.

From reports received at the National Association, from over 725 churches, with a membership of over 312,000 communicants of twenty denominations, and from 208 cities and towns in twelve states in various parts of the country, out of nearly 7,000 deaths in 1910, over 700 or 10.4 per cent were caused by tuberculosis. This means 2.24 deaths for every thousand members of communicants.

While the percentage of deaths from tuberculosis as compared with other diseases is not higher in the churches, according to these figures, than in the country at large, the tuberculosis death rate, as shown by the church returns, is higher per thousand communicants than that for the general population in the Registration Area of the United States, which the Census Bureau gave as 1.67 in 1909.

The "State Association" the bulletin says, "does not, however, consider the statistics received from ministers comparable from the point of view of accuracy with those reported by the Bureau of the Census." A sufficient number of returns from a great variety of churches have been received, nevertheless, to indicate that one of the most serious social problems the ordinary church has to consider, is that of the devastation of its membership by tuberculosis. The need for education from the pulpit and in the home is apparent. Every minister in the United States is asked to give this subject some attention during the next two weeks.

A Sermon or Lecture, Outline on Tuberculosis, was sent by the State Association to over 2,000 ministers in Kentucky and it is believed that practically 250,000 communicants in our state will discuss the Great White Plague on, or some day the week preceeding or following April 30th, which has been designated as National "Tuberculosis Day." All the prominent clergymen and many statesmen have given the movement their official endorsement. Anyone desiring further information about the plague in Kentucky can get it by addressing the Secretary of the Kentucky Association, Eugene Kerner, at 215 E Walnut St., Louisville, Ky.

"The Land of Room Enough"

The above title is the subject of a lecture to be delivered at Union College Chapel on the night of April 26, at 7:30 o'clock, by Dr. Thomas B. Terhune.

Dr. Terhune was at one time pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city and while here made many very warm personal friends who will rejoice at the opportunity of hearing him again.

As a minister and pulpit orator, Dr. Terhune ranks high, as he possesses a gift of eloquence that appeals to the intellect of his hearers, while his deep and earnest method attracts and charms them. His manner is smooth and pleasing and on the platform he has attracted as wide attention almost as in the pulpit.

Do not fail to hear him as he will bring a rare treat to his hearers.

HON. TECUMSEH WADE STRATTON

We present herewith a photograph of Hon. Tecumseh Wade Stratton, of Cromwell, Ky., who is a candidate for Great Keeper of Wampum of the Great Council of Kentucky, Improved Order of Red Men. He is an active worker in the Order and has done more for the Order in his section of the State than most anyone in the State. He is a K. of P., an Odd Fellow and a Mason, is a professor of short hand and stenography and an all round business man. We believe the boys in Southeastern Kentucky will support Mr. Stratton, as he is much talked of by the Past Sachems of this section of the State. So here is three cheers for Stratton.

A. T. Woods for E. T. Franks.

A. T. Woods, United States Pension Agent, last Monday came out opening for E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, for the Republican nomination for Governor. He gives his reasons at length for supporting Mr. Franks, declaring that he has indorsed the principles expressed in the last National and State Republican platforms, that he has always taken a stand on the side of law in night rider troubles, that he favors good roads, the taking of the penitentiary out of politics, a non-partisan banking law and other reforms.

TO CONSULT MAPS OLD LAND MARK

Before Calling Extra Session. Gov. Willson Will Request Population of State by Districts.

Before taking up the question of an extra session of the Legislature to re-district the State, Gov. Willson will request Alvin S. Bennett, secretary of the Republican State Committee, to prepare maps showing the State by districts with the population of each, according to the last census. Mr. Bennett has maps showing the population of the districts according to the 1900 census, but the Governor wants this revised and brought up to date.

He said that he had not talked with any of the leaders in either the House or Senate in either party about the possibility of passing a fair districting bill and had not read the recent census report.

The Governor is no nearer knowing now than he was several months ago whether he will call an extra session of the Legislature or not. He probably will decide the question in the next few weeks and will have a talk with Mr. Bennett and some of the Senate and House leaders before taking any action.

Some Class To That U. C. Bunch

The Kentucky Wesleyan University team was given a surprise last Saturday when Union College took both games of a double header with just as much ease as it would be to take candy from a baby. The first game was very loosely played but the outcome was never in doubt from the start. McDonald had them at his mercy at all times. K. W. U.'s first pitcher was very quickly sent to the tall timber, and his substitute proved little better. The score when the game ended was 13 to 1.

The second game was a much better exhibition of ball playing than the first and some good stunts were pulled off. Edwards, a former Union College pitcher, was sent in to do the heaving for Winchester and held the locals down to four runs. Watkins, for Union, was in fine form and kept the hits well scattered. Winchester secured two runs in this game.

The U. C. team left Sunday night for Richmond where they defeated the Eastern Kentucky State Normal 7 to 2.

On Tuesday they again crossed bats with Kentucky Wesleyan, this time in their own territory, and came out the victors by a score of 4 to 1. A second was scheduled with the same team but was called off on account of rain. No doubt Union would have added another victory had the game been played, but three straights from the same team looks mighty good.

Thursday's game with the Blue Grass League team at Paris has not been reported as we go to press. Another game with Paris this afternoon and one with Lexington tomorrow will complete the program in that section of the State.

A crowd of local fans will witness tomorrow's game at Lexington.

Convention Called

The Republicans of Knox County are hereby called to meet in mass convention at the Court house in Barbourville, Ky., on Saturday, April 29th, 1911, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., standard time, for the purpose of selecting 28 delegates to represent the vote of Knox county at the District convention to be held at Paris, Ky., on May 3rd for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate to be voted for at the November election in 1911.

Log Cabin Where Noted Men Began Career Now Being Removed

The little old Log Cabin that has stood for the greater part of a century just to the rear of the Advocate office, and has been used until recently as a shoe cobbler's shop, is now undergoing a change and its owners, Messrs Sevier and Wilson, are turning it around in order to build a concrete sidewalk through from the Public Square to High St. and the building will then face on the new sidewalk.

In the early fifties Miller and Woodson had their offices in this building and began the practice of law and associated with them was Mr. Hedding.

For a few years Miller practised medicine, but upon being elected as a Justice of the Peace began to read law, and became so engrossed in the profession that he gave up medicine and continued in law until he finally became a leading member of the United States Supreme Court.

His law partner, Woodson, obtained some note by being elected to represent Knox and Harlan counties in the constitutional Assembly. He afterward located at St. Joseph, Mo., and entered vigorously into politics and was elected as Governor of the State of his adoption and served with distinction. In the meantime Miller had located in Keokuk, Iowa, having also moved West from here, and upon the election of Abraham Lincoln was appointed to the Supreme Bench.

Hedding also located in Keokuk, Iowa, where he acquired a great reputation as a business man and when he died was quite wealthy.

This humble Log Cabin where these men made their start is among the last landmarks of the early days of our city.

The logs of which it is built were cut from the Public Square surrounding the present Court house, but one would scarcely know now that it was a log building as it has been weather-boarded and an additional room added to it which destroys a great deal of the originality of the Cabin. But it will possibly stand within a few feet of its original site for the next half century unless its owners decide to send it to the World's Fair at San Francisco in 1915 as an exhibit.

There are few houses standing in Kentucky that are as old as this one and none that are more historical.

MUSICAL RECITAL

Given Monday Evening at the Institute

The Musical Recital given at the Institute Chapel last Monday evening by Miss Blanche King's class was one of the most interesting and entertaining events of the season and was witnessed by a crowded house.

It was indeed wonderful to see the primary students, some not more than 8 or 9 years of age, sit down to the piano and perform their parts with as much composure as one who had years of experience.

The more advanced pupils also came in for a word of praise. Every one did splendidly.

The stage was neatly arranged with Easter Lilies and Carnations and potted plants, while Miss King never looked sweeter in her life than when directing the programme of the evening.

The Institute has indeed a gem in Miss King and if they have not already discovered it they will do so when some other institution secures her services and they come to substitute her place.

The Official Organ of the Republican Party in Knox County.

Hon. E. G. Asher, of Pineville, one of the best known Republicans in this end of the State, is an announced candidate for Representative from the 93rd Legislative district composed of the counties of Bell, Harlan, Leslie and Perry counties, and in his platform advocates many changes that would, if adopted, be of untold interest and benefit to the citizenship of Kentucky.

E. G. Asher Enters Race For Representative From Bell-Harlan District.

He strongly urges a re-districting bill and shows the unfairness of the present condition of affairs and urges that the State be re-districted according to present population and distributed as was intended by the Constitution.

He also favors a complete re-adjustment of our tax laws, and opposes the present special license tax that imposes a hardship upon small businesses and allows larger businesses to escape. This, he brands a class legislation and declares that it has checked and impeded the progress and development of our State.

He opposes the law which takes from the jury the right to fix the penalty in manslaughter cases and would, if elected, vote to revise the Statutes in that regard.

He favors the temperance plank adopted by the Republican party in its State platform which declares for County Unit law. He also favors any Good Roads measure that will in any way improve the public highways and give better law.

He favors a law making it a felony for any person to sell or offer their vote, and also depriving the purchaser of the right to hold office either by election or appointment.

He favors making it a felony for any one to have in his possession the registration certificate of another unlawfully and one who would wilfully secure such certificate from illiterate and ignorant voters to satisfy his political desires and deprive them of suffrage, should wear the stripes of a felon in the State penitentiary.

He favors a revision of the present school laws, especially the clause giving to the City School Board the power to adopt supplementary school books, because it works a hardship upon the parents to be compelled to supply new text books and often impedes the progress of the school.

We hope to see him win upon such a strong platform as he has outlined. There is a possibility that he will have no opposition.

A Tactful Deacon.

A strange person, officiating in a country church in the absence of the rector, to his horror saw the gentleman who had handed the plate, when returning it to him, slip a half crown off and put it into his waistcoat pocket, runs a story in "Seventy Years of Irish Life." Immediately after the service he told the sexton to request the gentleman to come to him in the vestry room. When he came he said to him:

"Sir, I was never so shocked and pained in my life. I distinctly saw you, sir, abstract a half crown from the plate and put it in your pocket."

"Of course you did," replied the man. "Here it is, I always do so. You see when I get the plate, before I begin to hand it around, I always place half crown on it in order to induce people to give more than they otherwise would, and I afterward remove it as you saw me do."

Greatest Attraction Of The Season.

With the elaborate looking and specially designed posters and lithographs of Sun Brothers' Big Shows, seen on the local billboards and dead walls, announcing their appearance here on Monday, May 1st, there are many to revive the old contention that the tented show harms a city in what it takes away from it.

This paper considers that the loss is more than answered in what the show brings, to say nothing of the show dollars left behind in the nature of feed bills, license fees and other forms of paid claims, the volume of fun and delight bequeathed to the amusement-loving element of citizenship brings us in debt to the showman.

We despise the cynical growling that is provoked by the occasional invasion of folks who earn their living by exercising their talents of making the world happier.

The man who begrudges the patriotism is himself a very poor patriot.

term of the virtue that he preaches. The Sun Brothers' Shows are making their twentieth annual tour, and they are bringing this season the greatest amusement effort of their long managerial career. There is a greater collection of wild beasts, trained animal novelties and many star European and American performers.

The show gives two complete and unabridged performances daily, in fair or rainy weather, at 2 and 8 p. m. On the morning of show day and on the exhibition grounds, directly in front of the main entrance, will be presented upon a magnificent scale a series of "thrillers" free exhibitions.

Timely Question.

A number of men gathered in the smoking car of a train from Little Rock to another point in Arkansas, says the Housekeeper, were talking of the food best calculated to sustain health.

One Arkansan, a stout, florid man, with short gray hair and a self-satisfied air, was holding forth in great style.

"Look at me!" he exclaimed, "Never a day's sickness in my life. And all due to simple food. Why, gents, from the time I was twenty to when I reached forty years I lived a regular life. None of these effeminate delicacies for me. No late hours. Every day summer and winter, I went to bed at 9; got up at 5; lived principally on corned beef and corn bread. Worked hard, gents; worked hard from 8 to 1, then dinner, plain dinner, then an hour's exercise, and then—"

"Excuse me," interrupted a stranger who had remained silent, "but what were you in for?"

Hon. L. C. Littrell Here

Hon. L. C. Littrell, of Owenton, was a visitor in this city Wednesday afternoon and paid this office a call.

Mr. Littrell is editor of the Owen County Democrat, and is also the Representative from Owen county in the General Assembly.

He is now seeking the Democratic nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, subject to the Democratic primary of July 1st.

Mr. Littrell is a pleasant gentleman and well fitted for the position he seeks, and we hope to see him win the nomination as we believe that the representatives of the Press should have some recognition from the State they so faithfully serve.

Spraying and What To Use.

Fruit trees ought to be sprayed twice regularly every year, once immediately after the blossoming period is past and again in a week or ten days. Whether or not they should be sprayed at other times depends entirely upon what pests are present on the trees and whether or not the trees have ever been sprayed before.

Immediately after the blossoming period is past spray at once with the following: Bluestone, 4 pounds; lime, 4 pounds; water, 50 gallons; arsenate of lead, 3 pounds.

Slake the lime and add enough water to make 25 gallons. Dissolve the bluestone by pouring over it four or five gallons of boiling water, then add enough water to make 25 gallons of bluestone solution. Now mix the two thoroughly by pouring bucket by bucket in a barrel, and add the arsenate of lead, stirring thoroughly. It is ready for use at once, and is the best preparation known for apple scab, rot and codling moth.

For peach and Japanese plum use less bluestone and lime, 2 pounds each, in 50 gallons of water. The arsenate of lead may be reduced also, to two pounds. Or, if preferred, the self-boiled lime-sulphur wash may be used for these trees, but whatever is used the arsenate of lead must be added to destroy the curculio.

Use the same mixtures and spray a second time a week or ten days later. If rots give trouble late in the season, a third spraying may be needed, but in many orchards only the two early spring sprayings are necessary to keep the trees in good condition.

When San Jose scale is present in an orchard, spraying should begin in winter. It is possible at this time to reach all of the bark surface, and very strong preparations may be employed while the trees are dormant.

For San Jose scale and other insects of its family, spray in winter or early spring before the buds swell, with the lime sulphur, wash with oily preparations such as coal oil emulsion, or with strong soap solutions. Lime-sulphur wash may be prepared as follows:

Lime, 20 lbs.; sulphur, 14 lbs.; water, 50 gallons. Slake the lime in a large kettle, adding sulphur at the same time stirring thoroughly. When slaked, add twenty gallons of hot water and boil an hour. Then add sufficient hot water to make a barrel of wash. Strain before using.

If desired, ready-made lime-sulphur preparations may be bought of the Grasselli Chemical Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, or of the Toledo Rex Spray Company, of Toledo, Ohio.

UP TO HIM

"Dr. J. H. Jowett believes it is the minister's, not the congregation's fault, if the church doesn't go."

The speaker, a member of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York, smiled and continued: "Dr. Jewett once told me that he sided with the old lady who always went to sleep during sermon time."

"Why don't you take snuff during the sermon?" the minister said to her. "That will keep you awake."

"Why don't you put the snuff in your sermon, sir?" retorted the old lady.

NOT EVEN "JACKASABLE."

Pikeville Advocate: The whole taxpaying, tax-ridden population of Pike county desire to attract the attention of the County Court to the fact that the public roads of the county are "impassable and not even jackasable and if they want to travel they had better bring their own gravel." They are paying road tax just the same.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church passed the last week and this week without a Social, but wish to announce that hereafter they will have the regular social until further notice.

James Bullock, of Grays, has purchased the barber shop belonging to John Carmichael and has taken charge. We call attention to his ad in this issue of the Advocate and ask that you give him a call.

A play, entitled "Modern Sewing Society," will be given Monday evening, April the 24th, at Union College Chapel for the benefit of the M. E. Church. Special music by the Glee Club. Admission 15 cts. Everybody come.

A swell line of the newest articles in ladies' neck wear at the Gibson Co's.

There are some overhanging limbs and not a few frog ponds on the sidewalks on Manchester Street, which are great impediments to progress on that thoroughfare, especially in rainy weather, and overhanging limbs tests the durability of umbrellas. Those in authority should see that the nuisances are removed.

H. L. Hatton is now putting in a cold storage, in connection with his butcher shop, which has taken a good sum of his finances. This being so, he would be very glad to receive payments from his customers on their accounts. He needs finances at this time to finish his cold storage before the warm months set in, hence this urgent appeal.

We are in shape to furnish you all kinds of tomb stones and monuments direct from the factory thereby saving you the middle-man's profit. Quality and workmanship equal to any in the country. When in the market for these goods call and see us.

Kentucky Marble Company,
J. Frank Hawn, Mgr.,
4144f. Barbourville, Ky.

The Cumberland Natural Gas Co., through Mr. Peter Kennedy, has purchased the building owned by Col. W. R. Hughes, on the West side of Public Square, and at present occupied by K. F. Davis and M. G. Diney as a barber shop, and will move their office fixtures and plumbing supplies into the newly purchased building in a few days. Messrs. Davis and Diney are fitting up the J. R. Jones store room next door to Herndon & Tinsley, where they will continue to run their Tonsorial Parlor.

MIDDLE MAN'S PROFIT SAVED.

I buy direct from the quarry the best Vermont marble; also handle Canton, Georgia, marble, in readiness for inscriptions, and the price for my labor in preparing, will be all the "middle man's profit" there will be about it. My prices will be very reasonable. New stock coming so come in and inspect work and get prices.

Census Report

Chief Director of the Census, E. Danna Durand, has given out the report for all the cities, towns and villages in Kentucky, which will be found on the fourth page of this issue of the Advocate. The report gives Barbourville a population of 1,633 an increase of 623 since 1900.

Frank Johnson Pardoned.

Governor Willson, Monday morning, granted a pardon to Frank Johnson, convicted in Bell county of robbery and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. The Governor says there is doubt about the guilt of Johnson. He has served seven months.

HOTEL REOPENS.

The Middlesboro Hotel opened Monday to the public. This noted hostelry had been closed since last December. The Middlesboro has a reputation for genuine hospitality. The new management, Mr. and Mrs. Firestone, of Akron, O., will most assuredly keep the reputation up to its high standard.

HERETOFORE

We have confined our solicitation for funds, especially to members of our Church, for we believe that liberality must begin at home if it is the proper kind. Now however, we are ready to solicit from the general public. All of our friends are cordially invited to help us in any way they can, in the raising of money toward our new church. We are well started toward the halfway mark and are having a fight for progress. Any member of the Christian Church will gladly receive your donation and acknowledge the same

KENTUCKY HAS URBAN GROWTH

CITIES SHOW LARGEST GAINS

Towns and Villages Fail to Keep Step
In March of Progress, Many Being Almost Entirely Depopulated by Movement Toward Larger Centers of Population—Maysville Is Only Place of Importance That Slipped a Cog, Having Fewer People Within
Her Borders Than in 1900.

Washington, D. C.—(Special).—E.
Dana Durand, chief director of the census department, has made public the figures showing the population of every city, town and village in Kentucky.

These figures show that the Blue Grass state has 58 cities, seven of which—Louisville, Lexington, Newport, Paducah, Owensboro, Henderson and Frankfort—have population in excess of 10,000. Eleven cities have population ranging from 5,000 to 10,
000. They are, in order of size, as follows: Hopkinsville, Bowling Green,
Ashland, Middlesboro, Winchester,
Dayton, Bellevue, Maysville, Mayfield, Danville and Richmond. There are 800 towns and 31 villages, making a total of 389 incorporations.

Analysis of the figures shows that Kentucky, like her sister states of the middle west, has grown situated during the past decade, in other words the tide of migration has been from the rural districts and smaller towns toward the larger centers of population. In many of the villages the population is below the 1900 mark. In the cities of between 5,000 and 10,000 Maysville is the only one that failed to keep step in the march of progress.

The population returns will be used as the basis for changing ward boundaries in every incorporated municipality in Kentucky and may be used by boards of education to change the school districts. These figures also will be used in redistricting the state for congressional and senatorial purposes.
